Christmas Day Caroling at the V.A.

Registration: 8:30am

Orientation 8:45am

Caroling 9:00am

For the past 40+ years, people have come to the Palo Alto VA Health Care System on Christmas morning to sing for veterans spending their Christmas in the hospital, often away from family and friends. This is a magical time, where people of all ages band together to bring holiday cheer to those who have fought to maintain our country's freedom.

100+ people gather in the auditorium, enjoy beverages/goodies, practice the carols, and then visit hundreds of veterans in their wards. As volunteers pass out gifts the VA supplies from local businesses and community groups, the carolers sing the songs of the season and a few patriotic songs. Most of the songs we will sing make a border around this flyer.

We need lots of people who love to sing. We need musical instruments of all kinds -- guitars, brass, woodwinds, strings -- to help with the caroling. If you have any of these talents, please let us know on when you sign up.

Children are welcome! Feel free to leave when your kids let you know they are done.

Won't you consider joining us this year?
